Regulations of Application for Anxing Grants

Approved at the 4th Institute Meeting of AY2012 on October 30, 2012.
Approved at the 2nd Institute Meeting of AY2016 on December 13, 2016.

- Article 1 The “Regulations of Application for Anxing Grants” (hereinafter called the “Regulations”) are established by the Institute of Economics with respect to Article 8 and Article 9, subparagraph 6, of the “National Sun Yat-sen University Regulations Governing the Income and Expenditure of Self-Raised University Funds” to aid students from low-income families to smoothly complete their students.
- Article 2 The Anxing Grants (hereinafter called the “Grants”) are established with the donation of alumni of National Sun Yat-sen University (NSYSU). The amount is subject to adjustment with respect to the effectiveness at the end of each semester.
- Article 3 All proceeds raised for the Grants will be deposited in the NSYSU special accounts and used for the specific purposes to support the operation of the Grants.
- Article 4 The Institute of Economics (IOE) will establish a review committee of the Grants. The IOE chairperson will chair the committee and review the approval and distribution of the Grants at the institute Meeting.
- Article 5 IOE students enrolling on an IOE master’s program (excluding in-service master’s programs) meeting any one of the following requirements may apply for the Grants:
1. Students who need additional financial support after an accident.
 2. Students with difficulty in maintaining normal daily life after a family situation.
 3. Students from a vulnerary family, including low-income family, unemployed family, students with disabilities or of parents with disabilities.
- Article 6 The maximum amount of the Grants each student is NT$10,000.
- Article 7 Students applying for Grants should submit the required document: Anxing Grants Application Form (as shown in the annex).
- Article 8 Application method: Students should fill in the application form, ask their tutor and the IOE chairperson give comments, and submit them to the IOE together with other related documents. Applications not signed by the tutor and IOE chairperson are considered as incomplete applications which will not be accepted. In the event of an emergency, the IOE chairperson may handle the situation and ask the student to finish the application procedure afterwards.
- Article 9 The application for the Grants will be reviewed on demand.
- Article 10 Acceptance, review, and announcement: After accepting the application, the IOE will refer the application to the review committee for evaluation. Announcement will be made after the approval.
- Article 11 The Regulations will be implemented after approval at the institute Meeting. The same shall apply to the amendments thereto.
